Hello [REDACTED]

Anne and I wondered if you would be able to make a call on our trial data and a couple of questions we have, largely relating to sickness absence which we are wanting to understand better (in terms of our experience, and that of other trials you are familiar with).

Short notice I appreciate but are you free at all on Wednesday morning? If not perhaps you could send me a couple of options when you are free?

I can set up a Teams call.

Many thanks
